BUILT IN

A survey made among those who expect to build or buy homes after the war reveals that more closet and storage space are definitely in the minds of 84 per cent of home planners. Kitchens must be all built-in. Closets should have hat shelves or cupboards over rods. Shoe-racks can be built on closet doors. Cupboards can be built in dining rooms and back hallways. They want cupboards which hold card-tables below, with shelves for games and toys above.

This is interesting and valuable knowledge for architects and builders. But there's a danger of overdoing it. Built-in furniture and storage shelves have permeated. Too much in one room prevents the alteration in arrangement which can so revivify it. Some leeway should be left for family changes and development of taste.

VOICE OF EXPERIENCE

Out at one of the Long Island clubs the boys were getting warmed up after a round of this pre-spring golf and tried to get a member of the local bench to take a hot toddy.

"Do you good, Judge," said one, "Didn't you ever try a good slug of rum?"
"No," admitted the judge, "but I've tried plenty of fellows who have." — Collier County News.

HELPER

This is a story about a fellow in a war plant who wasn't overworking himself, and who was tipped off that a government inspector was making the rounds and might drop in to check up on things.

Next day this worker saw a fellow in me they are getting a little fed up with the "war pictures." For myself, I am not, and I am sure that the crew of nine men on don't see how anyone can get too much of the exploits of our brave boys who are so valiantly bringing to a close the brutality of European criminals.

Sunday-Monday, at the Prince Theatre, we are offering the story of the famous flying "Porter" "Mary Ann" and her crew of nine men in a picture under the title "Air Force." Among the noted players in this story are: John Garfield, Gig Young, Harry Carey, George Tobias, Arthur Kennedy,

AIRACOBAS TESTED ON SINCLAIR PENNSYLVANIA MOTOR OIL

When Bell Airacobras, deadly pursuit planes, are given the works on test flights their 1150 horsepower Allison engines are kept safely lubricated with Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil—the same quality Sinclair Pennsylvania sold by your nearby Sinclair Dealer.

Now that your car must last longer, keep it safely lubricated with the same quality oil that protects the Airacobra's engine at 295 m.p.h. Have your Sinclair Dealer drain and refill your crankcase with Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil every 1,000 miles. It lasts so long it saves money as well as your engine.

the plant. Sure enough, this new chap sat down nearby and started to watch him, so the war worker turned on a burst of speed.

The following day the same stranger was present, and the worker plugged away harder than ever. Unaccustomed to this unwanted exertion, however, he keeled over and the Red Cross gang scooped him up on the stretcher.

"Listen, Bud," he said to the stranger, expecting government commendation for his hard work or perhaps some more tangible recognition, "who are you, anyway?"

"Me?" said the visitor. "I'm your new helper."—Investment Dealers Digest.

DEFINITIONS

A bore: One who, when you ask him, "How are you?" tells you.

A boy: An appetite with skin pulled over it.

A friend: One who dislikes the same people you dislike.

A genealogist: One who traces your family as far back as your money will go.

A grapefruit: A lemon that had a chance and took advantage of it.

Home: Where you slip in the bathtub and break your neck.

Love: The most fun you can have without laughing.—H. L. Mencken: A New Dictionary of Quotations.

GETTING EVEN

A man who had been bitten by a dog found that his wounds weren't healing very well, so he consulted a doctor. The physician, alarmed by this man's appearance, had the dog caught and examined. The dog had rabies. It was much too late to give the man a serum, so the doctor was forced to tell him the bad news.

"You, sir," he said, shaking his head, "are going to die of hydrophobia."

The poor man sat down at a desk and began writing. The physician was filled with remorse, and tried to comfort him.

"Perhaps it won't be so bad," he said. "You needn't make out your will now."

"I'm not making out my will," answered the man. "I'm writing out a list of people I'm going to bite."—Winter Haven Herald.

ed, they make a skillful landing at a jungle base but are given orders to take off for Australia. Meanwhile bombs are loaded on the B-17.

Only three are loaded, however, when sirens warn them of an enemy attack. They take off and account for one Jap cruiser and two transports with their bombs, but the plane is damaged and the crew is ordered to jump. With all motors damaged the ship is brought down safely, to be patched up for later battles in the Coral Sea. Raked by machine guns and hit by anti-aircraft, the "Mary Ann" finally lands on an Australian beach.

The picture is so well directed that I am sure every person who witnesses its unfolding will feel a greater interest in the exploits of "our boys" in this battle than ever before.

Tuesday - Wednesday Robert Paige, Harriet Hilliard, Dick Farn and Marjorie Lord, together with such well known players as Bobe Watson, Gus Schilling, The Step Brothers, The Kings Men and The Four Sweethearts, plus some hot bands bring "Hi, Buddy," a musical-comedy-romance with a delightful little story, lots of hot music, sweet singing - and comedy situations that will lay you in the alley with laughter.

On the same program, besides the short subjects and the current news, will be seen another interesting "March of Time."

George Sanders, who plays a very nasty villain, assisted by Gail Patrick, Richard Denning and Lynne Roberts bring a thrilling show to the old Prince for the Thursday-Friday offering. This one is "Quiet, Please, Murder!" Very interesting title, isn't it? One that makes one clutch one's throat and take the beat of one's pulse to see how the old ticker is skipping along.

It is really a thriller, and no mistake. Starts with George Sanders, a ruthless, egotistical criminal, murdering the guard at the Public Library and continues with Richard Denning, as a tough dick, chasing George all over H. . . . (whoops, 'accuse,' half acre. But in the end, as usual, the minion of the law finally manages to catch up with the arch criminal and bring him to the justice he deserves. It's really a thriller and you'll enjoy every moment of it.

On this program are some interesting short subjects and the current news.

For - the Saturday offering comes that rollicking team Buck Jones and Tim McCoy in a spanking "cow dramey" under the title "West of the Law." This one has all of the "shootin' arm" action that any member of the Six Shooter Club could ask for.

Signing off let me remind you, this month is the month of the greatest Victory Bond campaign in all the history of this war. Your Government is asking that every one purchase at least one bond this month. Your boys are asking you to do the same thing. Can you let your Government or your boys down? I don't think you will. Bonds and stamps can be purchased at many business houses, the Post Office and our Theatres. LET'S GO AMERICA—TO BERLIN!

See you at the movies—Mal.

... Our Passengers

WE of the Florida Motor Lines family hold a firm admiration for our passengers. For when it comes to bearing up, when war travel emergencies and problems are bearing down, they're 100 per cent . . . 100 per cent! In fact, as a group they are the most cooperative, most cheerfully indulgent folks it's been our good fortune to know. Fewer conveniences have made no 778 in our long and pleasant travel relationship. They accept wartime conditions as they are . . . relinquish their good American prerogative to travel how, when and where they please, all in the cause of Victory. ## ANOTHER BOND DRIVE COMIN'

Another bond drive is coming and it behooves each of us to invest every available dime in these certificates of Liberty.

Here at Betzner's we have been doing all we can in the purchase of War Bonds and during the next drive we are going to make an extra effort to take on more of Uncle Sam's offerings. After all, they are investments in the American way of life.

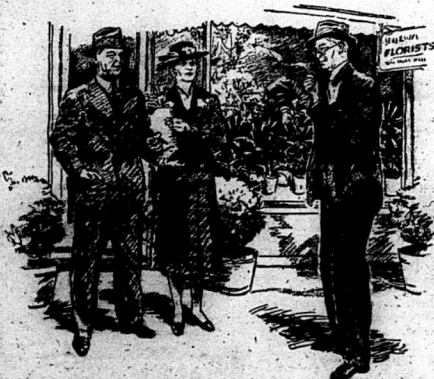

Let's all spend a little less for the luxuries of life and place this money where it will be available to buy the many things needed by our boys and girls in service.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Cid, we can info you, Judge. I was just tryin' to set Helen straight on this business about sugar. I wish you'd tell her what you told me last night down at Lodge."

"Cid to Jim. I told him, Helen, that there's not a single bit of truth to the rumor that the distillers use sugar in making whiskey. They make it exclusively from grain. Only bootleggers use sugar to make whiskey. I read an article in the paper just last week that goes to prove it. It told how a confessed bootlegger in a Federal court testified to the fact that another bootlegger, also on trial, had bought a million pounds of sugar a few years ago.

"As a matter of fact, Helen, no distiller is making whiskey today and hasn't for many months. All distillers are working night and day producing war alcohol for the government. And they make every drop of it exclusively from grain, too."
